

Preface

This conference is aimed at promoting a deeper understanding and relations between Malaysia and Indonesia at an academic, inter-societal and non-state level. It also seeks to encourage cooperation between researchers, academic institutions, civil society organisations and individuals in both countries, stimulating dialogue on bilateral relations and common interests of both countries regionally and globally. This conference is aimed at promoting a deeper understanding and relations between Malaysia and Indonesia at an academic, inter-societal and non-state level. It also seeks to encourage cooperation between researchers, academic institutions, civil society organisations and individuals in both countries, stimulating dialogue on bilateral relations and common interests of both countries regionally and globally.

The current conference bring a theme “Contributions of Humanities and Social Sciences on the Direction of Malay Studies in the Era of Industry 4.0”. The rapid change of technology has lead the world to Industrial 4.0 Era which affect not only physical, but also socio-cultural aspect of human life. Malay world as one of the developing region should prepare the themselves to compete with other regions. It is very important to strengthen the partnership and build solid bond which based on mutual understanding and the same spirit.

The conference has done successfully by presenting speakers from different country, including Indonesia, Malaysia, Thailand, Japan, Philippines, and some others. It has become a scientific platform to discuss the current issues on Humanities and Social Sciences. Besides, the conference has gathered many papers during the conference. This proceeding is a publication of selected papers from the conference which provide insight about the current issues of Indonesia and Malaysia relation. We hope the proceeding could be a reliable resource to know the current issues of Indonesia and Malaysia in the field of Humanities and Social Sciences.

Editor