

AUTHORS' GUIDELINES

The editors of the Nordic Tax Journal (NTaxJ) invite manuscript submissions focusing on taxation in the Nordic countries. We publish articles, reports, book reviews, and tax news in an open-access system.

Please read the following Manuscript Instructions and Peer Review Policy, and consult and follow our Style Guide and Sample Manuscript, before proceeding to the online submission page.

Manuscripts can be submitted through our online system, Editorial Manager, which you can access via this link www.editorialmanager.com/ntaxj/, or via a link on NTaxJ's web page.

Manuscript Instructions

- Manuscripts should normally range from 6,000 to 15,000 words, including footnotes, tables, and references.
- Articles must include an abstract of 150 words or less and a list of up to 6 keywords.
- Papers are to be written in US English according to our Style Guide. We strongly recommend that they be professionally edited for style and language before submission. Please contact the Editor-in-Chief for information about NTaxJ's preferred editors.
- The editors encourage authors not to restrict their cited research to material published in English.
- NTaxJ is a peer-reviewed journal. All manuscripts are evaluated by our Editor-in-Chief and/or one other member of the Editorial Board and by one or two anonymous external referees. Authors will usually be notified of our decision within 10 weeks.
