REVIEW ARTICLE

Title................................................................................................................................................
................................................................................................................................................
................................................................................................................................................
................................................................................................................................................
................................................................................................................................................

1. Is the article title consistent with its content?   yes  no  undecided
2. Is the title of the article topical?               yes  no  undecided
3. Are the presented results new countrywide?      yes  no  undecided
4. Are the presented methods new countrywide?      yes  no  undecided
5. Do the presented results and methods open new perspectives or areas for research and application in the specific field?   yes  no  undecided
6. Does the author clearly indicate what he/she has achieved? yes  no  undecided
7. Is the wording of the article appropriate?       yes  no  undecided
8. Is the selection and analysis of the literature used pertinent and sufficient? yes  no  undecided
9. Is the language of the article appropriate?      yes  no  undecided
10. Is the abstract written correctly?              yes  no  undecided
11. Is the terminology correct?                    yes  no  undecided
12. Are the illustrations appropriate and properly presented? yes  no  undecided
13. Are the graphics level and readability of the illustrating materials appropriate? yes  no  undecided
14. The quality of information included in the article is:
   - [ ] very good
   - [ ] good
   - [ ] fair
   - [ ] poor (issue obvious for specialists)

15. Expected interest in the article:
   - [ ] wide
   - [ ] narrow (for specialists)
   - [ ] none

16. Purpose of publishing the article:
   - [ ] publishing desirable
   - [ ] publishing gratuitous

17. Is the article acceptable for publication?
   - [ ] yes in the form and volume presented
   - [ ] yes after editorial recommendations
   - [ ] yes after subject-matter corrections
   - [ ] yes after it is completely reworded
   - [ ] yes in the future after the research is supplemented or extended
   - [ ] no the article is not acceptable for publication

Article evaluation:
...............................................................................................................................
...............................................................................................................................
...............................................................................................................................
...............................................................................................................................
...............................................................................................................................
...............................................................................................................................
...............................................................................................................................
...............................................................................................................................

Detailed remarks shall be placed on a separate sheet or marked in the text.

............................................
Signature reviewer