Call for contributions

Baltic Journal of European Studies (abbreviation BJES) is a semiannual double blind peer-reviewed international research journal with an international editorial office and extensive international editorial board, abstracted and indexed in EBSCO and other relevant databases.

The scope of the journal comprises a wide spectrum of social, political, legal and cultural issues related to recent developments in the European Union and its member states, such as:

- Current societal, economic and cultural issues in the EU and its member states
- Results of EU-related empirical social studies
- Theoretical issues related to the development of EU identity
- EU-related legal issues
- History of EU
- Book reviews

We kindly encourage members of the academic community to contribute to our journal. Papers submitted to the forthcoming issues will be reviewed by outstanding specialists of the particular field under the strict supervision of the international editorial board.

Requirements for the articles are as follows:

- The article should be in English, meet the general criteria set for a research paper;
- The desirable length of the article should not exceed 15 pages in the case of font size 12 and 1.5 line spacing (or 32,000 characters with no spaces or 4,500 words);
- The article should contain a short abstract (max 300 words) and keywords (max 10);
- References to the literature must meet the criteria of Harvard system of citation used by most scientific journals (see also http://www.usq.edu.au/extras/business/journals/HRMJournal/Harvard%20Referencing.htm or http://www.i-cite.bham.ac.uk/Harvard.shtml).
