Articles should be between 7000 and 15,000 words long. In the exceptional case, longer articles may be considered for publication, sometimes in two or more parts. Shorter contributions may be considered for the 'Work in Progress' section. A list of 5 keywords and an abstract of 100 words should accompany each paper.

G&LP only accepts papers in English as a strong commitment to cross-cultural dialogue. Though the Editors will provide linguistic revisions when needed, it is the author's responsibility to ensure the quality of the English text. US and UK spelling may be used, as long as it is consistent through the paper. Single quotation marks should be used throughout, with double quotation marks reserved for embedded quotes.

The full names of historical figures should be given in complete form on the first mention of a person (not initials), with birth and death dates specified from a reliable source. Thereafter, use the family name, or in rare cases just the given name. Author should use CHICAGO guidelines for references and bibliography.
