Dear Sir/Madam,

From January 2015, JOS will be printed and distributed by our printing partner - DeGruyter Open. For price information and orders, please contact Magdalena Mikolajczak (Magdalena.mikolajczak@degruyteropen.com). Please use the Printing Order document for orders. You find the document on the website under the “overview” tab.

For your information, JOS is an open access journal and all articles are available free of charge at www.jos.nu. The website offers a number of functionalities, for example a Table of Content alert that generates an automatic email notification when a new issue is available online.
