Guidelines for referees

REVIEW of the paper for publication in the journal Environmental Protection and Natural Resources

Paper Title ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………

……………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………

The referee report should include:

1) paper evaluation and recommendations concerning the following aspects:
   - consistency of paper subject with the journal profile,
   - clear, understandable and precise phrasing of the title in accordance with paper topic,
   - timeliness of the discussed issue and originality of the study,
   - full, precise and understandable presentation of the discussed issue,
   - paper correctness at a substantial and linguistic level,
   - appropriateness of selection and preparation of figures, tables, graphs and maps,
   - proper documentation and interpretation of the results obtained and apt formulation of the conclusions,
   - conciseness and clearness of the summary,
   - inclusion in bibliography of all references referred to in the text,
   - proposals of bibliography verification, if needed;

2) final conclusion including the decision on article publication
   - in the present form,
   - after minor revisions,
   - only after major revision of the text, tables and illustrations;

3) additional remarks.