Instruction for authors

If you are preparing a manuscript to submit to the Journal of Pedagogy, please utilise the following instructions. The Journal of Pedagogy publishes only original work that does not copy or duplicate previously published work. Articles submitted to the Journal of Pedagogy must not be in press, accepted or under review elsewhere. The submitted manuscript must not contain any illegal, abusive, defamatory or judgmental content or language. By submitting your manuscript to the Journal of Pedagogy, authors are agreeing to originality checks to their manuscript during the double blind peer-review and production processes. The authors are responsible for compliance with the Research Ethics Committee, IRB or similar institutions in the country and/or institution where the researcher is based.

Manuscripts are accepted in English, and any consistent spelling and punctuation styles may be used. A typical manuscript will not exceed 8000 words including graphs, tables, references, captions, footnotes and endnotes.

Submitted manuscripts should be in a Word document, with an abstract (max 200 words) and 4 to 5 keywords. For each author please provide a bio (max 70 words). The submitted manuscript should be compiled in the following order: title page; abstract; keywords; main text; acknowledgements; references; appendices (as appropriate), bio/s. Please keep section headings concise.

All authors of a manuscript should include their full names, affiliations, postal and email addresses on the title page. One author should be identified as the corresponding author. All scholars who may have a reasonable claim to authorship must be named in the manuscript as co-authors. Please supply all relevant details required by any funding and grant-awarding bodies as an acknowledgment.

Please provide the highest quality figure, pictures and graphs format possible. Please note that these will be printed as black & white images. If you wish to have them printed in color, please contact the lead editor regarding financial compensation. All figures must be numbered in the order in which they appear in the manuscript. If authors wish to include material in their article for which they do not have copyright, they must obtain written permission from the copyright owner, prior to submission, and the appropriate acknowledgement must accompany the submitted article. Authors are solely responsible for any fees which the copyright holder may charge for reuse.

At the moment, authors cannot submit animations, movie files or sound files as part of their publications.

There is no submission fee, or page charges for the Journal of Pedagogy.

All lead and corresponding authors can receive a complimentary copy of the issue containing their article.
