INSTRUCTIONS FOR REVIEWERS

According to the guidelines formulated by the Editorial Board, the review should include answers to the following questions:

1. Does the study contribute new important elements to the current state of knowledge?
2. Does the manuscript specify the objectives and conclusions of the study?
3. Are the applied materials and methods adequate and described in sufficient detail?
4. Are the figures and tables constructed properly and clearly?
5. Are the references suitable and complete?

In your final opinion, please indicate one of three options:

1. The manuscript should be accepted for publication in the present version.
2. The manuscript should be accepted for publication after revision (please, indicate what should be corrected).
3. The manuscript should be rejected, as its correction is not possible.

Manuscripts accepted for publication will be subjected to linguistic revision during editorial work.
