

Instruction for Authors

Please submit your manuscript online at <http://caim.simai.eu/index.php/caim/about/submissions> (login required).

Detailed instructions for the preparation of manuscripts are available at the same link.

Although we encourage submissions from around the globe, we require that manuscripts be submitted in English. Contributions to CAIM should fall within the broadly understood ambit of the journal outlined in the statement of journal's aims and scope.

We accept submissions that have not been previously published, nor are under consideration at another journal (or an explanation has been provided in Comments to the Editor).

Before submitting a manuscript we invite all authors to review the journal's Publication Ethics Statement

To publish in CAIM, authors are required to pay an article processing charge (APCs) of € 120 plus VAT or local taxes where applicable for each article accepted for publication, as contribution to the expenses. Furthermore, in submitting a manuscript authors acknowledge that at least one author is expected to become SIMAI members upon acceptance of the paper. Please contact our Editorial assistant Francesca Sechi (francescasechi@libero.it) for further information.
